WHEREAS, the Declaration Submitting Riverbend on the Willamette Condominium to Condominium Ownership of the Association of Unit Owners of Riverbend on the Willamette Condominium, a nonprofit corporation formed under the laws of the State of Oregon, states that the Association membership shall obtain and maintain in force policies of insurance as provided in the Declaration or the Bylaws of the Association;

AND WHEREAS, Article 8, Damage and Destruction, and Article 10, Insurance, of the Bylaws clarifies the type of insurance and the responsibilities of the Association and the owners to place and maintain in force at all times appropriate insurance to protect the owners, the Association and its members;

AND WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Board of Directors to help ensure:

3. There is a program to minimize the number of insurance claims, and
4. There is a procedure for reporting and processing insurance claims, and

The Declarations and Bylaws of the Association are silent regarding responsibility for the payment of the Association insurance policy deductible. NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the conditions, requirements and procedure set forth below be adopted.

Dependent on the nature and severity of the claim additional fees may be incurred, but not limited to, the following professionals; Association Attorney, Architect, Civil/Structural Engineer, etc. Regardless of whether a claim is filed additional charges for Managing Agent oversight is the responsibility of the Association as set forth in the Management Contract. The Board may decide to pass some or all of the charges to an individual unit owner.

3.3 The Association shall seek reimbursement for all expenses of processing the claim from an owner when the claim exists and the insurance does not cover all the costs based on the same percentage share as the deductible is allocated.

1. The Association's insurance does not cover personal liability of unit owners, and property insurance does not cover loss or damage to personal property and freestanding appliances. Owners need to gain the advice of their Insurance Agent in determining the amount of personal liability, property, personal property, deductible and other insurance they should have in their individual policies.
2. The minimum general liability is $1 million, with additional coverage as may be determined by the Board of Directors. This does not cover individual liability for owners within their condominiums.

4. The directors, officers, employees and managing agent shall not be liable to the Association or any member thereof for any damage, loss or prejudice suffered or claimed on account of any action or failure to act in the performance of his or her duties, except for acts of gross negligence or intentional acts. In the event any member of the Board of Directors, any officer, employee or the managing agent of the Association is made a party to any proceeding because the individual is or was a director or officer or manager of the Association, the Association shall indemnify such individual against liability and expenses incurred to the maximum extent permitted by law.
